• Oklahoma (3-1) bounced back from its first loss of the season with a 93-71 win over Portland (2-3) on Friday. The game was played at Veterans Memorial Coliseum in Portland, Ore., as a part of PK80. The Sooners will conclude their in Portland on Sunday at noon CT when they play for fifth place against the winner of Friday’s DePaul-Oregon game.

• The Sooners were led by freshman guard Trae Young, who shot 11-of-18 from the field to score 33 points. Young is the first freshman in the Lon Kruger era to score 30 points and his performance marked the highest-scoring game by an OU freshman since Tommy Mason-Griffin tallied 38 points on Jan. 27, 2010. Young added eight assists, five rebounds and three steals in 33 minutes.

• Through four games, Young has surpassed 20 points in three contests. He leads the Big 12 in scoring with averages of 24.5 points, 9.0 assists, 4.3 rebounds and 2.3 steals.

• Senior forward Khadeem Lattin collected his second double-double in as many days, scoring 19 points on 8-of-9 shooting and pulling down a career-high 16 rebounds. His performance was the first game of 15 points and 15 rebounds by a Sooner since Kristian Doolittle had 15 and 15 against Iowa State on Jan. 21, 2017.

• Oklahoma’s lone senior, Lattin is averaging 14.3 points and 10.3 boards through four games while shooting 24-of-33 (.727) from the field.

• Junior guard Christian James picked up his fourth straight game of double-digit scoring, recording 11 points with four assists and three rebounds.

• While OU led by double digits for most of the second half, the Pilots went on a late run to come within five (67-62) with 7:15 remaining. The Sooners the put away Portland with a 15-2 run that included 10 points from Young.

• The Sooners shot over 50 percent for the third time this season and also dished out at least 20 assists for the third time. OU went 34-of-66 (.515) from the field and handed out 22 dimes.

• OU’s offensive numbers continue to be some of the best in the nation. Oklahoma is scoring 98.0 points per game with 20.8 assists and shooting .527.

• Up next, Oklahoma continues play in Portland with its final game at PK80. The Sooners will play either DePaul or Oregon at Veterans Memorial Coliseum on Sunday. Should Oklahoma and Oregon meet, it will be a rematch of the 2016 Elite Eight showdown that advanced the Sooners to their fifth Final Four. The Sooners downed Oregon, 80-68, behind 37 points from Buddy Hield. Both the Sooners and Ducks have been to one of the past two Final Fours, with Oklahoma advancing in 2016 and Oregon making it in 2017.
